Dear Mr. Dulles,

Executive Record

60-1278

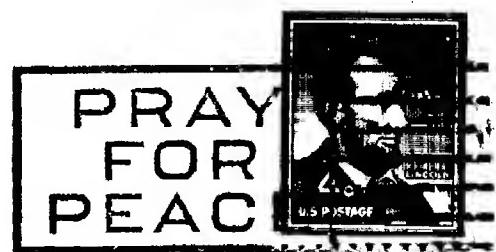

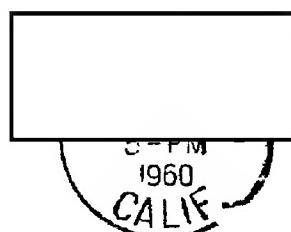

Sorry to bother you, Sir, but could you please send me your autographed picture for my collection. You see, I am collecting the autographs of all leading government officials, because I am very interested in their work. I would be very happy if I could include yours in my collection, because you have had such great influence on our national survival.

Sincerely yours,

John Vollmer
